

Making Voting Accessible For All

JUSTICE IN AGING
FIGHTING SENIOR POVERTY THROUGH LAW

Health Network Alert

With Election Day less than one week away, it's important that voting be accessible for all – including seniors and people with disabilities who are isolated or have mobility challenges. There are a number of voting resources that advocates serving these populations should be aware of.

- For general voting information including where to vote and key deadlines, visit USA/gov/Voting.
- Some Area Agencies on Aging and Aging and Disability Resource Centers may offer rides. Visit the Eldercare Locator website to find one in your community.
- The National Ombudsman Resource Center can help people living in long-term care facilities exercise their right to vote.
- 10 Tips for Voters with Disabilities includes information on different voting methods and more.
- The Southeast ADA Center has compiled a current Resource List for voters in that region.
- The National Disability Rights Network is a resource for people with disabilities who need help exercising their right.
- The Bazelon Center, NDRN, and Autistic Self Advocacy Network created a guide to voting rights for people with mental disabilities.
- The Arc has a voter support website where voters can ask for help or report problems.
- The Federal laws protecting the voting rights of people with disabilities can be found here.
- The U.S. Department of Justice Civil Rights Division has more information about voting laws, enforcement actions, and how to file a complaint if you feel your voting rights have been violated.

Thanks to ACL.gov for distributing an earlier list of resources and inspiring us to create our own!
